

Sarah K. Elfreth (D-MD-3)

BIOGRAPHY

State senator and Towson University professor, Sarah Elfreth is running to fill Rep. John Sarbanes' (D-MD-3) seat

EDUCATION

MS, Johns Hopkins University, 2012; BA, Towson University, 2010

WORK HISTORY

Senator, Maryland State Senate, District 30, 2019-Present; Adjunct Professor, Towson University, 2019-Present; Senior Director of University Projects, Margrave Strategies, 2016-2017

PARTY HOLD

Read the full profile on Almanac.

POLICY POSITIONS

Proponent of public school education that wants to expand funding as Congresswoman

- Champion for public school education; believes that "every child deserves access to a high-quality public education"; as a state senator, Elfreth advocated for expanding funding to community colleges and Maryland university systems; helped pass legislation that provided funding for mental health services, early childhood education, and teaching salaries

Advocate for abortion access

- Voted for the 2022 Abortion Access Act, designed to expand access to abortions and training for medical professionals in Maryland; holds that "we have an obligation to protect a woman's choice to have an abortion or to have a child"

Small business ally

- Raised in a union family; "committed to tearing down the barriers that prevent people from fully participating in our economy"; advocates for Maryland small businesses

DISTRICT PROFILE: MD-3

POPULATION

778,152

MEDIAN HOUSEHOLD INCOME

$122,470

RACE & ETHNICITY

56% White, 16% Black, 11% Asian, 10% Hispanic

DONATIONS

Total raised: $2,107,766

TOP THREE INDUSTRIES

- Pro-Israel
- Hospitals/Nursing Homes
- Real Estate

ELECTION RESULTS

2024
GENERAL:

K. Elfreth (59.4%)

Steinberger (38.0%)

■ Other

CPR* RATING:

Solid D

